THE DEPARTMENT OF RADIOLOGY PRESENTS:

NYU'S 2014 ADVANCED IMAGING OF JOINTS WITH AN EMPHASIS ON SPORTS INJURIES

May 19-21, 2014

Optional Workshops: Thursday, May 22, 2014

- Read with the Experts: Sports Medicine Imaging Workshop 2014
- Half Day Hands-on Ultrasound Workshop 2014

Course Description

This conference will offer a unique and innovative program in sports related injuries which is organized by body part and includes a review of relevant anatomy in each area. There will be simulcasts of actual arthroscopic procedures of the knee and shoulder with review of the pertinent imaging findings. A discussion of relevant sports related pathology will then ensue. All of the major joints will be covered in this comprehensive fashion. Other current and relevant topics to be covered will include cartilage repair techniques and their appearance on imaging, imaging athletic pubalgia, common sports specific injuries, nerve entrapment syndromes and musculoskeletal ultrasound.

Learning Objectives

- Determine how best to modify imaging techniques and protocols for all areas of Musculoskeletal MRI including: hip, knee, shoulder and foot, for improved therapeutic decision making.
- Describe ultrasound guided interventional procedure, including sterile technique, contraindications to percutaneous procedures and appropriate doses of steroids, and discuss the increasing role of ultrasound in the diagnosis and treatment of musculoskeletal diseases.
- Evaluate the latest technology, focusing on magnetic resonance and the increasing importance of ultrasound in order to apply this technology to everyday practice.
- Describe safety factors as they pertain to the use of high field MRI in musculoskeletal imaging.

Read with the Experts

Enrollment limited to 50 registrants only!

This workshop will allow the participant to read cases alongside some of the best musculoskeletal radiologists in the world. We will present challenging cases and will guide registrants through this hands-on and interactive session. Registrants will review approximately 50 cases under the supervision of these expert speakers. This intensive session will focus on developing a systematic approach to the interpretation of normal anatomy and pathology of various joints, with an emphasis on common manifestations and patterns of sports related injury. The participants will have an opportunity to see how experienced musculoskeletal radiologists, all leaders in the field, approach the cases.

Please note, personal laptops are recommended (but not required) for this workshop if the participant is interested in viewing the imaging studies in a more independent fashion. Attendees may bring PCs or Macs. If you bring a Mac, please make sure you have a virtual machine setup i.e., Parallels/VMWare/Bootcamp

Enrollment limited to 36 registrants only!

This hands-on workshop will include 6 rotating workstations divided by anatomic region and one final station dedicated to demonstration of interventional techniques. The instructors in each area will give a brief demonstration of the proper technique for evaluation of their assigned anatomy, followed by the opportunity for the participants to practice their newly acquired skills upon a volunteer or model. The participants at the interventional station will have the opportunity to practice needle guidance techniques utilizing ultrasound guidance and cadaveric specimens.

Disclosure Statement

The NYU Post-Graduate Medical School adheres to ACCME Essential Areas and Policies, including the Standards for Commercial Support regarding industry support of continuing medical education. In order to resolve any identified conflicts of interest, disclosure information is provided during the planning process to ensure resolution of any identified conflicts. Disclosure of faculty and commercial relationships as well as the discussion of unlabeled or unapproved use of any drug, device or procedure by the faculty will be fully noted at the meeting.

Target Audience

The target audience for this program will be radiologists, both in academic and private practice, seeking to increase their skills in musculoskeletal radiology, as well as orthopedists and physical medicine and rehabilitation practitioners interested in learning how imaging can best be incorporated into their practice. This course is also appropriate for trainees in these areas.

Statement of Need

NYU's 2014 Advanced Imaging of Joints with an Emphasis on Sports Injuries offers a comprehensive and intensive 3-day program in musculoskeletal radiology. There has been tremendous growth in the field of radiology and in the area of musculoskeletal imaging in particular, making it mandatory for radiologists, both in academic and private practice settings, to continually update their skills and complement their knowledge base. Maintenance of certification also requires radiologists to stay current with new advances in the field.

With the growth of radiology and the increasing importance it plays both in the diagnosis and treatment of diseases in the musculoskeletal system, it has also become imperative for practicing orthopedists and practitioners of physical medicine and rehabilitation to have a basic understanding of imaging and how it can best be used in service of the patient.
