

Langone Medical Center
Silberstein Alzheimer's Institute
Center of Excellence on Brain Aging

The NYU Alzheimer's Disease Center

Invites you to our 40th Free Educational Seminar

Join us as experts speak about:

The Brain in Context

Genetics and Alzheimer's Disease: What's family got to do with it?

How does genetics play a role in dementia, should I be worried and what can I do?

James Galvin, MD, MPH, Professor of Neurology and Psychiatry, and Director of the Pearl Barlow Center for Memory Evaluation and Treatment

What's in a melody? Music and the Brain

How does music affect the brain?

Concetta M. Tomaino, D.A., MT-BC, LCAT, Executive Director/Co-Founder of the Institute for Music and Neurologic Function, Beth Abraham Family of Health Services

Depression, Brain Aging and Alzheimer's Disease

How are depression and brain aging and Alzheimer's disease related and what are the treatments?

Barry Reisberg, MD, Professor of Psychiatry, and Director of the Clinical Core of the NYU Langone Alzheimer's Disease Center

Date: Tuesday April 26th, 2011

Time: 2:00 – 4:00 pm

Place: Farkas Hall, NYU Langone Medical Center, 550 First Avenue (32nd St)

REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SERVED

For further information please call: 212-263-2047

Reservations are not required