

The Thirtieth Annual
RICHARD L. SCHARF MEMORIAL LECTURE
sponsored by NYU Psychoanalytic Institute

Practicing Psychoanalysis: Making Possible the Impossible Profession

Erik Gann, M.D.

Introductions: Barbara Deutsch, M.D. and Françoise Graf, Ph.D.

Erik Gann is a Training and Supervising Analyst at the San Francisco Psychoanalytic Institute and Society, and Associate Clinical Professor of Psychiatry at the University of California San Francisco Medical Center. A former member of the faculty of NYU Psychoanalytic Institute and the Department of Psychiatry of NYU Medical Center, Dr. Gann is a native New Yorker.

Saturday, May 14, 2005 11:30 a.m.

The Rose Room, 12th Floor, New Bellevue (Bellevue Hospital, 462 First Avenue at 27th St.)

Lunch with the speaker to follow
($10 contribution requested)

All are welcome.
Please RSVP to the Institute office, 212-263-6243,
if you plan to join us for lunch.

The Richard L. Scharf Memorial Lecture was set up to honor the memory of candidates who passed away during the course of their training. The lecture is geared specifically to topics of particular importance to candidates.

www.psa.med.nyu.edu